MARRIAGES

Lewis-Craig

Miss Mary Elizabeth Lewis and Mr. Samuel Bryan Craig were married at the Presbyterian church here Wednesday evening at nine o'clock, in the presence of a gathering that filled the seating capacity of the church.

The church was beautiful with its decoration of green and white—the color scheme. Against a background of white, palms and ferns were artistically arranged dotted here and there with green and white candles. Magnolias and cape jasmines in profusion added the finishing touch and the scene was one of rare beauty.

Several beautiful selections with the violin were rendered by Oliver Boggs with piano accompaniment played by Miss Ruth Parsons just prior to the entrance of the wedding party.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Parsons the bride and groom came down the aisle. The bride with her maid of honor, Miss Fredda Hughes, was met at the altar by the groom with his brother, L. Courtney Craig, the music then changed to Schubert's serenade during the ceremony, which was impressively read by Rev. John C. Bailey.

The bride was daintily and exquisitely dressed in a gown of white crepe de chine with pearl trimmings—the veil of tulle gracefully arranged and held by ropes of pearls. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The ushers for the occasion were Messrs. A. C. Mann of Union, G. G. Christopher of Greer, E. F. Alexander and B. B. Porter of Pickens.

The bride and groom left immediately after the ceremony and will visit points of interest in North Carolina before returning to Pickens, where they make their home.

Mr. Craig is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret G. Lewis and numbers her friends by the score. Mr. Craig is a member of the law firm of McSwain and Craig and was graduated from the University of South Carolina in the law class of '14. It is a source of pleasure to their friends for this popular young couple to continue to make Pickens their home.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding were, Hon. J. J. McSwain and L. H. Craig of Greenville, Dr. J. E. Algood, Miss Elizabeth Algood and Mr. and Mrs. Joke Algood of Liberty, Mrs. W. H. Hughes and daughter, Miss Fredda Hughes, of Richland, Mr. H. P. Sitton, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Saddle of Pendleton, Mrs. Boyce Hopkins of Seneca, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cox, W. L. Sutherland, Frank Sutherland and Miss Edith Cox of Belton.

Hamilton-Sims

A wedding of interest to the friends of the contracting parties was that of Miss Jessie Hamilton and Mr. Johnson J. Sims, which took place at the home of the bride in Easley last Wednesday, Rev. H. K. Williams performing the ceremony. Mrs. Sims is the second daughter of Mrs. W. A. Hamilton and is one of Easley's most popular young ladies. Mr. Sims holds a responsible position in the office of the Glenwood mills and is held in high esteem. They will continue to make their home in Easley.

Goddard-Hamilton

Mr. E. L. Hamilton and Miss Mamie Goddard were married last Wednesday at the home of Miss Goddard, near Coronaca, S. C., Rev. E. V. Babb of Newberry performing the ceremony. The wedding was a brilliant affair and was attended by a number of people from Easley. Mr. Hamilton is one of Easley's most prominent and popular business men, while Mrs. Hamilton as Miss Goddard was very popular in Easley, having made her home there for some time.

Cobb-Wyatt

Another wedding in which prominent Easley people were the contracting parties was that of Mr. A. Frank Wyatt and Miss Launa Cobb, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Cobb, last Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock. Rev. C. D. Waller performed the ceremony. Mrs. Wyatt is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Cobb and is very popular in Easley. Mr. Wyatt is a prominent business man of Easley, being assistant cashier of the Easley Loan & Trust Co., and is very popular both in business and social life.

Holcombe-Clark

Married by J. B. Newberry at his office Saturday, June 17, Miss May Holcombe and Mr. Velmor Clark, both of Pickens county.

From Marietta Route Two

We haven't any news of very much importance, except the old, old story—grass, grass, grass, and still the rains come and keep old green on the upgo.

The Rev. J. E. Foster filled his regular appointment at Mt. Tabor church on the fourth Sunday. His subject on this occasion was "It Is Finished." Bro. Foster, as usual, handled his subject well. The Lord's Supper was also administered at the service. I wish to say just here that the singers deserve much praise for the part they play in the services at Tabor, as they average up with most of the classes in the county on good singing and attendance.

Oolenoy Camp W. O. W., No. 577, very fittingly decorated the grave of Jesse A. Hendricks at Mt. Tabor church on the second Sunday at 4 o'clock p. m. The address was very ably delivered by Mr. D. W. Smoak of Greenville.

The writer had the pleasure of attending the Dacusville township singing convention at Nine Forks church on the first Sunday evening and am proud to tell you, Mr. Editor and Sentinel readers, they sure up on the singing business. This convention will meet with Oolenoy Baptist church the first Sunday in July.

Mrs. Robert Nimmons, who has been seriously ill, is reported as being somewhat improved at this writing.

PROGRESSIVE.

Fourth of July Services

All day religious service will be held at Mountain View Baptist church the Fourth of July. Talks, songs and other forms of religious entertainment will occupy the time. This will be a unique and appropriate way to celebrate the one hundred and fortieth anniversary of the independence of these glorious United States. Tuesday, July 4, will be the day and everybody is invited to come "and bring song-books and well-filled baskets."

Great Meeting at Easley

The protracted meeting at Easley conducted by Rev. Mr. Danner is attracting large crowds and much interest is being manifested. Mr. Danner is a born evangelist. The Lord seems to have called him to that special work. He is a bold, fearless preacher. He believes in a heartfelt religion. The meeting makes one think of an old time Methodist camp meeting, before people became too proud to kneel at the altar and ask for the prayers of Christians, and when people were not ashamed to shout when the spirit of God moved upon them with power. On last Sunday afternoon O. K. Mauldin, Esq., of Greenville, a young lawyer who was recently converted, made a great talk to men and about forty men gave their hands to live a better life. Mr. Mauldin is a man of powerful intellect and if he should decide to enter the ministry he would doubtless be a great preacher and accomplish much in the Master's cause. May the Lord guide him. H.

Arnold-Rogers

Married, at the home of the bride on Pendleton street in Greenville on the 14th inst., Miss May Arnold to Mr. Thaddeus E. Rogers, of Greenville. Miss Arnold is the youngest daughter of J. T. Arnold, whose home was in Easley for many years. Mr. Rogers is a prosperous young merchant of Greenville. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion and there were many invited guests. Rev. D. W. Hiott, an old time friend of the family, performed the ceremony. May success attend this young couple.

DuBose-Boykin

Invitations as follows have been received in Pickens: "Mrs. Edward Cassels DuBose invites you to be present at the wedding reception of her daughter, Elizabeth Shannon, and Mr. Elias Miller Boykin on Wednesday evening, the twenty-eighth of June, from nine to eleven o'clock, at home, Camden, South Carolina. Ceremony at half after eight o'clock."

Miss DuBose is a former resident of Pickens having taught in the high school here. She is a sister of A. P. DuBose of Easley. Both Mrs. DuBose and Miss DuBose are pleasantly remembered here and she has a number of friends who will read this announcement with interest.

Tollison-Brookshire

H. P. Brookshire, proprietor of Brookshire's garage here, left Friday for Laurens, where on Saturday he was married to Miss Annie Tollison. The young couple went to Wrightsville Beach, N. C., to spend a few days after which they will return to Pickens where they will make their home.

PICKENS TO HAVE BIG BOOSTER CHAUTAUQUA

Pickens is to have a chautauqua. A representative of the Radcliffe bureau was in Pickens last week and met a committee of citizens and a contract was signed. The dates set are: Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 8, 9, 10 and 11. There will be three big days, and on Sunday one of the noted lecturers of the Radcliffe bureau will deliver an address.

The first day attractions are the Columbia Concert company and Dr. D. W. Daniel. The first is a concert company composed of young ladies. Dr. D. W. Daniel of Clemson College, a man that we all know and admire, will be on the program the first day and we are fortunate in securing him.

The second day attractions are Durno the Mysterious, and company, and Eugene Lockhart, entertainer, formerly with the Kilties Band.

The third day the Tryolean Alpine Yodlers will be here. This is a unique and delightful entertainment. The yodel songs of these magic singers has charmed audiences all over the world. Dr. Frank Sampson, William Rader or Albert Marion Hyde will be our chautauqua director and will deliver addresses. These men are all noted orators.

Pickens is fortunate in securing this group of entertainments. If every good citizen will respond promptly and buy season tickets success will be assured.

Two teams are now busy selling tickets, the Reds and the Blues. B. B. Porter is captain of the Blues and A. D. Attaway is captain of the Reds. Buy season tickets now. The price is only $1.50. Single admission tickets will be 50 cents.

The following are the officers and the chairmen of the committees. E. F. Alexander, president; Sam B. Craig, sec. and treas.; T. A. Bowen, chm. advertising com.; B. F. Parsons, chm. tent com.; T. A. Bowen, chm. agricultural com.; R. T. Hallum, chm. educational com.; J. T. Taylor, chm. health com.; T. H. Stewart, chm. music com.

It will be seen from the above that agriculture, education and health will each have a part to play. In the morning of each day will be held the free entertainments. One morning will be devoted to agriculture and an address will be delivered and probably exhibits will be had. The next morning to education and the next morning to health. These addresses will be made by noted men and the morning entertainments will be free. The other attractions will be held in the afternoon and at night. The entertainments will be held in a big tent, probably on the court house square.

Committees have been appointed to look after the details. Let's make July 8, 9, 10 and 11 days long to be remembered in Pickens. Are you going to do your part?

Mrs. T. J. Mauldin Entertains

An enjoyable social event of the week was the reception given by Mrs. T. J. Mauldin at her beautiful home "Homestead Hall," Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James Hagood Bruce, a recent bride. More than a hundred guests were present and enjoyed a delightful afternoon. Mrs. Frank McFall and Mrs. Robert Hendricks greeted the guests upon entering, while Mrs. McD. Bruce and Mrs. B. D. Lenhardt received in the reception hall and presented the guests to the receiving line in the sitting room, which was headed by Mrs. T. J. Mauldin, the hostess, with Mrs. Bruce, the honor guest. Quantities of sweet peas with palms and ferns furnished the decorations in the living room and sitting room, which were beautiful. From the sitting room the guests were invited by Mrs. C. B. Hagood into the dining room, which was lovely in pink and white. Here Mrs. W. T. McFall and Mrs. W. F. Mauldin presided. Block pink and white cream and cake, followed by mints, were served by Misses Alexander, West, Kathrine Hagood and Ivy Mauldin. Appropriate souvenirs were given each guest and the affair will long be remembered by those present as a most delightful occasion.

Pickens Co. News 40 Years Ago

Pickens Sentinel, June 22, 1876.

There is not a pound of meat for sale in this town. The merchants are all out and are unable to get it shipped over the railroad. Those who depend on them for a supply are in a grumbling mood.

Elihu Griffin's mill on Rice's Creek was washed away by the freshet.

C. L. Hollingsworth, Esq., informs us that his crop on Twelve Mile river is totally ruined. His neighbors are no better off.

Pickens prices current. Corrected by W. T. McFall. Cotton 11 1-2 to 11 3-4. Cotton seed, per pound, 4c. Eggs, per dozen, 10c. Corn 75c. Wheat $1.50. Flour $8 and $10. Peas 90c.

We find the following announcements of: John J. Lewis for clerk of court, W. G. Field for probate judge, J. Riley Ferguson for sheriff, J. S. Carlisle and M. J. S. Hendricks for school commissioner.

We also find an account of "the most destructive freshet that within the memory of the oldest inhabitants has ever visited this section. Rain fell from Sunday until the following Saturday night, causing almost a total destruction of the crop and washing away all the bridges in the county except one or two."

A Suggestion

A custom that I believe we ought to change is that of opening the casket at the church and allowing a great throng of people, many or them from mere curiosity or because it is a custom, to come up and gaze at the features of our beloved dead. And especially the custom of holding up little children to look into the coffin. It always excites children and makes them nervous. A casket should not be opened at the church unless it be in the case of a near relative who could not possibly get to the home before the burial. If anyone should desire especially to see the dead let them go to the home and look before the funeral procession starts to the church or the cemetery. I would rather remember my friends as they look while living. Children become so excited or stirred by idle curiosity that frequently I have to get them to move away so I can get to the grave to pronounce the benediction.

Let the people think about it and if the suggestion is worth anything all right, if not pass it on. In this case I am trying to carry out the golden rule. I am trying to do by you like I would have you do by me. Respectfully, D. W. HIOTT.

Park Ready For Play

The members of the W. C. T. U. have fixed up a park and playground in the grove in front of R. F. Herd's residence. A tennis court has been made and plenty of seats provided and the place in other ways has been made attractive. They wish to invite the general public, and especially the children, to visit the park at any and all times. It has been made for their benefit and pleasure and it is the desire of the members that they enjoy it. The land is being used through the kindness of the owner, Capt. I. M. Mauldin.

Sam J. Ashmore of Wichita Falls, Texas, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ashmore, in Pickens. His many friends here are glad to see him.

POLITICAL

The candidates for state offices will be here Thursday, the 22d, coming here from Greenville, where they speak on Wednesday. The campaign opened in Spartanburg Tuesday of this week. The speaking will take place on the court house lawn, as has been the custom heretofore. The speaking will probably begin about 10 o'clock. The candidates will arrange the order of speaking among themselves, so it is impossible to tell who will "start the ball rolling and who will stop it."

The greatest interest centers in the race for governor. Five candidates have filed their pledge for this office and will be here Thursday: R. I. Manning, R. A. Cooper, Cole Blease, J. M. DesChamps and John T. Duncan. There are two candidates for state treasurer and five for railroad commissioner, Cansler, of Tirzah, being one of the number. All others are without opposition.

The candidates for governor were all given a patient hearing in Spartanburg Tuesday. All were generously applauded and there was no excitement.

W. C. Mann's Platform

Fellow Citizens of Pickens County:

I ask for your support not on the merits of my opponents, but on the following grounds:

1. The state or county should allow each thief so much per day until he has reimbursed the property taken or destroyed by him; then he should serve his given sentence with the state or county.

2. I stand for an increased pension for old soldiers.

3. Seeing that the present game law is in reality merely a statute, I stand for the repealing of said law, or to so amend it that it will serve its purpose. (My amendment will be explained on the stump.)

4. I stand for the amending of the Jim Crow law, making it unlawful for any white person or persons to teach in any colored school, as it is today unlawful for any negro to teach in a white school.

5. I stand for the adoption of the "County system" school law in this state.

6. I stand for better roads on a more economical maintenance plan; the establishment of a state highway commissioner's office, the duties of said commissioner being similar to those of the state superintendent of education.

There are numerous other needs that I might mention, but space forbids my doing so.

I have attended the legislature for the last three years while in college at Columbia and have studied closely the needs of the people, and despite my brevity in years (this, of course, I am not responsible for, but am remedying every day), I hope, if elected to a man's position, to give you a man's service.

I assure you that your vote will not be as seed cast by the wayside and that it will be appreciated.

(adv) W. CLARENCE MANN.
